INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

THE RULES OF THE FIRST LOOK – TV PILOTS COMPETITION

Camerimage is the biggest international film festival devoted to the creation of film image by cinematographers. Their profession, invaluable to the moviemaking world yet underestimated for many years, has found its rightful place at Camerimage. Once a year, great visual artists come here to meet with novice filmmakers who learn from their experience. Vivid cinematic imagery created by recognized cinematographers provide a source of numerous inspirations and references. The Festival is a forum for presentation of the most outstanding achievements in the art of cinematography and for discussion about its present and future condition.

Art. 1

GENERAL CONDITIONS AND DEFINITIONS

1. Tumult Foundation, with its seat registered at Rynek Nowomiejski 28, 87-100 Toruń, Poland (herein referred to as "the Organizer"), the producer of Camerimage Festival, is the organizer of the First Look - TV Pilots Competition.
2. The regulations contained herein are established to determine the rules of TV pilot submissions and awards in the First Look - TV Pilots Competition.
3. The 26th edition of Camerimage Festival (herein referred to as "the Festival") will be held from 10th till 17th November 2018 in Bydgoszcz, Poland.
4. First Look - TV Pilots Competition is an international event.
5. The aim of the First Look - TV Pilots Competition is to present TV pilots with unique visual appeal which will then be evaluated by an international jury who will choose and award the authors of the best cinematography.
6. For the purposes of these regulations, the terms "TV pilot" and "pilot" shall mean the pilot episode of fiction series or miniseries, or the first episode of the first season (for multi-season productions) of fiction series or miniseries that have been approved for production.

Art. 2

SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Only those TV pilots (as defined under Art. 1(6)) that have been approved for production can be submitted for selection. Unsuccessful pilots that did not result in the series being picked up for production will not be considered.
2. Fiction features, student etudes, documentary films and music videos must be submitted through an appropriate, separate form and in accordance with appropriate regulations.
3. Second or subsequent episodes, or the first episodes of the second or subsequent seasons, will not be considered. Reality shows, documentary series, animated series and sitcoms are not eligible. Pilots which withdrawn their participation from the selection processes or which we rejected in previous years will not be taken into consideration again.
4. Filling the online entry form at www.camerimage.pl and prompt dispatch of the required materials listed in Art. 3 is an essential prerequisite for a TV pilot to be accepted for selection.
5. The deadline for film submissions (preview screeners and other required materials) is 31st July 2018. By this date the submissions and the materials must be received by the Organizer. Postmarks dates will not be taken into consideration.

The Organizer does not charge any submission fees for the First Look - TV Pilots Competition entries.

6. Only those TV pilots that are available as a DCP (Digital Cinema Package) or video file (as per specifications provided under Art. 6) might be accepted for selection. When submitting an entry form, a DCP or video file screening print must be reserved for the period of the festival.
7. Only those TV pilots that were produced after January 1st 2017 will be taken into consideration for the selection process.
8. In the entry form for a TV pilot, the Submitter is obliged to declare that:
  - a) they are authorized to make the submission and to grant to the Organizer a license defined herein for the use of the TV pilot and the accompanying materials. Thus a Submitter declares that they own all the copyrights and related rights or is authorized by the holder of these rights to act for them and on their behalf within the scope of the submission, or that:
  - b) they are authorized only to submit the TV pilot and the accompanying materials and that the Organizer is obliged to acquire an appropriate license from an authorized party for the use of the TV pilot, and that:
  - c) they are authorized to provide personal data of the persons indicated above in the TV pilot submission form for Camerimage Festival, and that the persons whose data I provide in connection with the TV pilot submission for Camerimage Festival, have agreed to the processing of their personal data in order for the TV pilot to participate in Camerimage Festival, including processing the data for the purposes of the TV pilot selection process, communication related to Camerimage Festival, and for the purposes of conducting statutory activities by the Tumult Foundation, and that:
  - d) they agree to the processing of their personal data in order for the TV pilot to participate in Camerimage Festival, including processing the data for the purposes of the film selection process, communication related to Camerimage Festival, and for the purposes of conducting statutory activities by the Tumult Foundation.
9. If point 8 b) is the case, an authorized party must grant an approval (license) to the Organizer to use the TV pilot for competition purposes on the terms set forth in the Rules and in the appropriate time in order for the TV pilot to take part in the competition.
10. If point 8 a) is the case the Submitter declares that within the scope of the provisions included herein they (or their Principal) own the exclusive and unlimited rights to the TV pilot and the accompanying materials and declares that the TV pilot and the accompanying materials are not encumbered with third-party rights and do not violate these rights. Additionally, the Submitter declares that they are duly authorized to make a submission and grant the license, and that the authorization had not expired or had not been revoked by the time the submission was made. In case of any claims from any third parties against the Organizer regarding an infringement of third-party rights (especially copyrights, performance rights and producer's rights), the Submitter agrees to satisfy all lawful claims of these parties and absolve the Organizer from any liabilities arising therefrom.
11. If point 8 b) is the case the Submitter declares that they make the submission with an agreement and knowledge of an authorized party and that the approval (license) for the use of the TV pilot will be separately granted to the Organizer otherwise the TV pilot will not be qualified for the competition. The Submitter also takes all responsibility for submitting the TV pilot without the knowledge and consent of an authorized party.
12. If point 8 a) is the case the Submitter, upon submitting the TV pilot, grants to the Organizer a free of charge, non-exclusive license for the use of the TV pilot and other submitted materials in the following ways (fields of exploitation):
  - 12.1 to hold not more than three public screenings of the TV pilot as a part of the Festival
  - 12.2 to translate the dialogue list into any language and to use and manage the translations at will within the scope defined in point 12.4
  - 12.3 to copy the screener and accompanying materials with any technique (analogue, digital) for the purpose of their translation as well as the selection purposes and promotion of the TV pilot
  - 12.4 to use the trailer or any clips from the TV pilot (up to 3 minutes), the series title and the accompanying materials for the promotional purposes via public screening, performance, exhibition, presentation, communication, broadcasting and re-broadcasting, as well as to make the work available to the public in a manner allowing every person to have access to such work in a place of their own choice (webcasting, simulcasting, payTV, etc.) or in a place and at a time of their own choice (video-on-demand etc.), especially on the Internet or for downloading by means of mobile devices (e.g. mobile phones, consoles or other portable multimedia devices)

12.5 to use all the materials described in paragraph 12 to promote next editions of the Festival

13. The Organizer reserves the right to further sublicense the use of the clips from the TV pilot and the accompanying materials subject to the terms set forth in paragraph 12, especially to sublicense any mass media (including broadcasters, Internet portals, cinemas) to distribute clips from the TV pilot (up to 3 minutes), the trailer or the accompanying materials.
14. Submitting a TV pilot to Camerimage Festival is tantamount with the consent of persons indicated in the TV pilot submission form, to the processing of their personal data in order for the TV pilot to participate in Camerimage Festival, including processing the data for the purposes of the film selection process, communication related to Camerimage Festival, and for the purposes of conducting statutory activities by the Tumult Foundation.
